hugh j silverman was an inspiring scholar and teacher known for his work engaging and shaping phenomenology hermeneutics psychoanalysis structuralism poststructuralism and deconstruction as professor of philosophy and comparative literary and cultural studies at stony brook university state university of new york silverman s work was marked by the

between a concept he developed to think the postmodern in the space between philosophy and non philosophy in this volume leading scholars explore and extend silverman s philosophical contributions from reflections on the notions of care time and responsibility to presentations of the practices and possibilities of deconstruction itself they provide an assessment of silverman s life and work at the intersection of philosophy ethics and politics between horror and hope is a study of paul s metaphorical language of death in romans 6 1 11 the scholarly debate focuses on two main issues the origin of the commentatio mortis tradition and its development dr sabou argues that the origin of this terminology is original to paul that it was the apostle s own insight into the meaning of christ s death a death to sin and his understanding of the identity of christ in his death as the anointed davidic king which guided him to create this metaphor of dying to sin as a way of describing the relationship of the believer with sin on the development of this language of death the author argues that this language conveys two aspects horror and hope the first is discussed in the context of crucifixion in which paul explains the believer s death to sin by presenting christ s death as the death of the anointed davidic king who won the victory over sin and death by rising from the dead paul affirms that believers are coalesced with what was proclaimed about christ s death and resurrection thereby allowing him to assert that the releasing of the body from the power of sin is a result of crucifixion this crucifixion is the condemnation inflicted on our past lives in the age inaugurated by adam s sin and this is such a horrible event that believers have to stay away from sin since sin leads to such punishment in contrast hope is presented in the context of burial the believers burial with christ points to the fact that they are part of christ s family and this is accomplished by the overwhelming action of god by which he pushes us toward the event of christ s death an act pictured in baptism it is this burial with christ that allows believers to share with christ in newness of life part of the south western human resources management series this text is research oriented but provides a broad view of major appraisal issues it is written for the upper level mba or doctoral courses in performance appraisal where there is an emphasis on multiple perspectives the entire text is written on the notion of alternative perspectives in deeply original essays the authors build on the seminal work of robert cover one of the few legal scholars ever to consider the question of law and violence in striving to situate his insights within current political social economic and cultural contexts they contemplate diverse and interrelated subjects surrounding the theme of law and violence among these are the purpose of law as punishment the increasing number of executions in the united states prison violence racial disparity in sentencing and the meaning of torture the result is a remarkable volume that stimulates us to reconsider connections that we too often leave unexplored
