evangelism has entered a new day from the 1980s to the present a vast array of new forms of evangelism have emerged shaped and informed by theological reflection on the good news of jesus christ and the mission of god rejecting the reduced and formulaic forms of evangelism typical of most of the twentieth century these newer approaches speak more of the reign and love of god relationship and community and both personal and social transformation they are very diverse but each has something to contribute to how we understand and practice evangelism this book is a doorway into these theologies of evangelism and their fresh and dynamic ways of sharing the good news the publication of william j abraham s the logic of evangelism in 1989 marked a turning point in the field and practice of evangelism almost thirty years later the book still provokes discussion as it stimulates both theorists and practitioners to all christians are called called to love god with all that we are called to serve him called to reach out to the lost however if we are honest the majority of us would admit that we find this last calling the most difficult while we gladly support the evangelistic ministries of others many of us feel discouraged by our own attempts at witnessing because our memorized approaches don't seem to work this biblical study of evangelism gracefully reminds us that the new testament model of witnessing is not a one size fits all methodology with compassion for the lost filling every page jerram barrs shows the variety of approaches used in the new testament where the same uncompromised gospel was packaged as differently as the audience and calls you to follow its example you can learn to witness comfortably in your particular circumstances so that sharing christ doesn t feel like a chore and as you watch god work in the lives of others and see the great blessings he brings you ll discover what a privilege it is to live out the heart of evangelism truly loving others to christ i see many schools of the apostles prophets and the prophetic and very little of the school of evangelism many who are evangelists have forgotten that they have the same responsibility given to the other offices to train or edify others to do the same work they do i believe the time has come for each office to go back to the place of making disciples and he himself gave some to be apostles some prophets some evangelists and some pastors and teachers for the equipping of the saints for the work of ministry for the edifying of the body of christ ephesians 4 11 12 nkjv we have been praying and asking god for revival and i see god bringing revival in the teaching ministry meaning the spirit of god is stirring us up to teach more as opposed to preaching with the fresh wind of god blowing i felt the burden and pull to teach and equip those who are called for the ministry of evangelism by way of this book i pray that this book will spark a fresh fire for evangelism in the spirit and heart of the one reading it in jesus mighty name i pray that you will be fully equipped and receive the desire to equip others to do the work of an evangelist this workshop book is written to give you some guidelines that will help you to start well you can also use it to equip your team if you have one i have underlined some key words or points to help you remember them when using the book as a workshop tool the underlined sections will help you to interact with those you are teaching by asking them to write the keywords down as you give them later you can ask them to read to you repeating the key points and ask you questions this will help you to stay in the teaching mode instead of preaching apostle claire revealed
