when we think of installation art we imagine enormous perhaps bewildering multi media environments in this book mark rosenthal offers an historical interpretation and concise critical analyses that should help deepen readers appreciation of this often confusing medium from ferdinand chevel s palais ideal 1879 1905 and simon rodia s watts towers 1921 1954 to ant farm s cadillac ranch 1974 and richard serra s tilted arc 1981 installation art has continually crossed boundaries encompassing sculpture architecture performance and visual art although unique in its power to transform both the site in which a work is constructed and the viewer s experience of being in a place installation art has not received the critical attention accorded other art forms in space site intervention some of today s most prominent art critics curators and artists view installation art as a diverse multifaceted and international art form that challenges institutional assumptions and narrow conceptual frameworks the contributors discuss installation in relation to the genealogy of modern art community and corporate space multimedia cyberspace public and private ritual the gallery and the museum public and private patronage and political action this ambitious volume focuses on issues of class sexuality cultural identity rase and gender and highlights a wide range of artists whose work is often marginalized by mainstream art history and criticism together the essays in space site intervention investigate how installation resonates within modern culture and society as well as its ongoing influence on contemporary visual culture installationskunsten har gået sin sejrsgang verden over og er her i det 21 århundrede en både vel og anerkendt bestanddel af samtidskunsten med påvirkning fra og udveksling mellem billedkunst på den ene side og performanceteater på den anden befinder installationskunst sig som bogens titel viser netop i feltet mellem billede og scene i installation art between image and stage undersøger anne ring petersen grundstenene for en af nutidens mest udbredte kunstformer installationer er ligesom skulpturer tredimensionelle formationer eller billeddannelser men i modsætning til skulpturen er installationen karakteriseret ved at være formet af rum eller rumlige scenografier som skaber betydning og sanseoplevelser gennem sit billedsprog som resultat af dette er installationer ofte stort anlagte kunstværker som beskueren kan gå ind i og de lever dermed til fulde op til nutidens krav om spektakulære æstetisk iscenesatte events og kulturoplevelser der taler til sanserne gennem grundige analyser af værker af kunstnere som bruce nauman olafur eliasson jeppe hein mona hatoum pipilotti rist og ilya kabakov som bagtæppe søges der i denne bog svar på hvad en installation egentlig er hvilke virkemidler den bruger hvordan installationskunstens opståen kan forklares i et kulturhistorisk perspektiv og meget mere også installationskunstens rumlige tidsmæssige og diskursive aspekter såvel som dens receptionsæstetik der sættes ind i en overordnet kunst og kulturhistorisk ramme undersøges installation art between image and stage er et nyttigt værk for alle der ønsker at forstå denne mangefacetterede kunstforms konceptuelle fundament anne ring petersen dr phil er lektor ved institut for kunst og kulturvidenskab københavns universitet har i 2009 udgivetinstallationskunsten mellem billede og scene og er redaktør af contemporary painting in context 2010 despite its large and growing popularity to say nothing of its near ubiquity in the world s art scenes and international exhibitions of contemporary art installation art remains a form whose artistic vocabulary and conceptual basis have rarely been subjected to thorough critical examination in installation art between image and stage anne ring petersen aims to change that she begins by exploring how installation art developed into an interdisciplinary genre in the 1960s and how its intertwining of the visual and the performative has acted as a catalyst for the generation of new artistic phenomena she investigates how it became one of today s most widely used art forms increasingly expanding into consumer popular and urban cultures where installation s often spectacular appearance ensures that it meets contemporary demands for sense provoking and immersive cultural experiences the main trajectory of the book is directed by a movement aimed at addressing a series of basic questions that get at the heart of what installation art is and how it is defined how does installation structure time space and representation how does it address and engage its viewers and how does it draw in the surrounding world to become part of the work featuring the work of such well known artists as bruce nauman pipilotti rist ilya kabakov and many others this book breaks crucial new ground in understanding the conceptual underpinnings of this multifacious art form anne ring petersen is associate professor in the department of arts and cultural studies at the university of copenhagen and the editor of contemporary painting in context michael archer s illuminating introduction traces the history of installation art from duchamp s first readymade through the pop tableaux of kienholz oldenburg kaprow and dine to more recent developments such as land art and process art this is followed by a global range of installations presented and documented by nicolas de oliveira nicola oxley and michael petry installation art provides both a history and a full critical examination of this challenging area of contemporary art from 1960 to the present day using case studies of significant artists and individual works claire bishop argues that as installation art requires its audience to physically enter the artwork in order to experience it installation pieces can be categorised by the type of experience they provide for the viewing subject as well as exploring the methodologies of the artists examined bishop also explains the critical theory that informed their work while revising and in some cases re assessing many well known names this fully illustrated book will introduce the reader to a wide spectrum of younger artists some yet to receive critical attention book jacket media screens film video and computer screens have increasingly pervaded both artistic production and everyday life since the 1960s yet the nature of viewing artworks made from these media along with their subjective effects remains largely unexplored screens addresses this gap offering a historical and theoretical framework for understanding screen reliant installation art and the spectatorship it evokes examining a range of installations created over the past fifty years that investigate the rich terrain between the sculptural and the cinematic including works by artists such as eija liisa ahtila doug aitken peter campus dan graham valie export bruce nauman and michael snow kate mondloch traces the construction of screen spectatorship in art from the seminal film and video installations of the 1960s and 1970s to the new media artworks of today s digital culture mondloch identifies a momentous shift in contemporary art that challenges key premises of spectatorship brought about by technological objects that literally and metaphorically filter the subject s field of vision as a result she proposes that contemporary viewers are quite literally screen subjects and offers the unique critical leverage of art as an alternative way to understand media culture and contemporary visuality

a critical survey of contemporary art installation and environmental art from around the world this volume surveys the innovative ways in which installation has evolved embracing different and often unexpected media and its far reaching practice worldwide installation has opened art to experimental strategies beyond the traditionally visual as impressively illustrated here in over 300 reproductions of work by artists as diverse as doug aitken vanessa beecroft santiago sierra and mariko mori back cover installation art has become mainstream in artistic practices however acquiring and displaying such artworks implies that curators and conservators are challenged to deal with obsolete technologies ephemeral materials and other issues concerning care and management of these artworks by analysing three in depth case studies the author sheds new light on the key concepts of traditional conservation authenticity artists intention and the notion of ownership while exploring how these concepts apply in contemporary art conservation based on original empirical research and cross case analysis this ground breaking study offers a re examination of traditional conservation values and ethics and argues for a reassessment of the role of the conservator of contemporary art mara johanna kölmel explores the profound impact of digital technologies on the field of sculpture since the 1950s when artists create their works using ai custom software or prototyping technologies how should we be rethinking the concept of sculpture through the works of morehshin allahyari alice channer and sterling crispin as well as an inter generational group of artists she examines how plasticity corporeality and monumentality have been transformed by the digital introducing concepts such as more than human
