the practitioner s handbook on international arbitration and mediation 3rd edition is a unique work with each chapter written by a well known practitioner and expert in the field it covers each step of the international arbitration and mediation process and offers separate chapters that summarize the laws of leading arbitral venues this handbook is intended to make the reader into a better practitioner or arbitrator mediator moreover each chapter has been written to provide practical advice and guidance unlike many works with multiple authors this work is not simply a collection of essays on a general subject this book is a unified work with cross references among the chapters and a consistent format throughout the practitioner s handbook is divided into three parts part one describes in detail each step of the international arbitration process and offers tips part two deals with each step and facet of an international mediation each of these chapters is filled with practitioners expert commentary part three summarizes the laws of leading arbitral jurisdictions like hong kong england switzerland and france these chapters give you detailed guidance on the laws governing international arbitration in that particular jurisdiction as a result the chapters in part three are a bit more technical as the authors realized that the reader would need citations to and commentary on the local arbitration statutes and rules the cd rom that accompanies this work contains relevant original source material that is germane to the text a review of the table of contents of the material contained on the cd rom will acquaint you with the range of material covered central to the book s purpose is the procedural challenge facing arbitrators at each and every stage of the arbitral process when fairness arguments conflict with efficiency concerns and trade offs must be determined some key themes include how can a tribunal be fair and in particular be neutral if parties are so diverse how can arbitration be made efficient and cost effective without undue inroads into fairness and accuracy how does a tribunal do what is best if the parties are choosing a suboptimal process when can or must an arbitrator ignore procedural choices made by the parties the author thoroughly evaluates competing arguments and adds his own practical tips expertly synthesizing and engaging with the conference literature and differing authors views he identifies criteria that offer a harmonized approach to each stage of the arbitral process with particular attention to such aspects of international arbitration as appropriate trade offs between flexibility and certainty the rights duties and powers of arbitrators appointment and challenge of arbitrators responses to guerilla tactics drafting of arbitration agreements including specialty clauses drafting of required commencement notices and response documents set off fast track arbitration and other efficiency options strategic use of preliminary conferences and timetabling online arbitration multi party multi contract class arbitration amicus and third party funders pre arbitral referees and interim relief witness evidence both factual and expert documentary evidence production obligations and challenges to production identifying applicable law and remedies and costs
