this book investigates moral metaphors in english and chinese applying conceptual metaphor theory to a comparative study of the linguistic manifestation of the moral metaphor system rooted in the domains of bodily and physical experience ning yu sheds light on the metaphorical nature of moral cognition and how it is systematically manifested in language and explores the potential commonalities that define moral cognition in general as well as the differences that characterize distinct cultures the work investigates moral cognition at the cultural level as reflected in language based on linguistic evidence from both english and chinese and to a limited extent multimodal evidence from the corresponding cultures the moral metaphor system is taken to consist of three major subsystems referred to as physical visual and spatial these subsystems are clusters of conceptual metaphors whose source concepts are from domains of embodied experiences in the physical world and which are formulated in contrastive categories with bipolar values for the target concepts of moral and immoral the study is characterized by two keywords system and systematicity the former refers to the fact that metaphors conceptual and linguistic are connected within networks and the latter to the need for those metaphors to be studied in such networks the oxford handbook of metaphor in organization studies provides a comprehensive reference for researchers educators and managers the book comprises twenty nine chapters which are authored by over forty contributors many of whom have played major roles in the development of the field over the years to what extent and in what ways is metaphorical thought relevant to an understanding of culture and society more specifically can the cognitive linguistic view of metaphor simultaneously explain both universality and diversity in metaphorical thought cognitive linguists have done important work on universal aspects of metaphor but they have paid much less attention to why metaphors vary both interculturally and intraculturally as extensively as they do in this book zoltán kövecses proposes a new theory of metaphor variation first he identifies the major dimension of metaphor variation that is those social and cultural boundaries that signal discontinuities in human experience second he describes which components or aspects of conceptual metaphor are involved in metaphor variation and how they are involved third he isolates the main causes of metaphor variation fourth professor kövecses addresses the issue to the degree of cultural coherence in the interplay among conceptual metaphors embodiment and causes of metaphor variation seminar paper from the year 2018 in the subject english language and literature studies linguistics grade 1 3 uni jena de language english abstract the example of the common metaphor life is a rollercoaster portrays how even such a simple form of the versatile device communicates a profound message and helps us language users to grasp an abstract concept metaphor however is not just a linguistic device it is indeed fundamental in everyday life lakoff and johnson 3 even in the medium of film people make use of the device in the form of filmic metaphor in all these different instances the omnipresent device allows us to understand and grasp abstract concepts by mapping them to another domain pixar s inside out is a valuable example of how metaphor in film is used the comedy drama introduces five little figures who are embodiments of the five basic human emotions and live in a young girls head in the following paper i will analyse the movie inside out as an example of how metaphor in film is used to communicate and clarify human emotions prior to the investigation of the device in the computer animated movie a theoretical view on metaphor in general will be provided on this occasion i will present a rough overview of the conceptual metaphor theory the concept of metaphor will then be elaborated in reference to film metaphor subsequently i will apply the theoretical basis to the movie inside out pixar s use of metaphor in the comedy drama will be analysed in detail with the focus on the following emotions joy sadness and anger i will demonstrate how the metaphor of emotion and brain function is displayed in the movie furthermore the metaphorical visualisation of growing up will be addressed
